

Relationships Founded on Integrity and Trust

SUZANNE M. GUY

Mortgage Originator, NMLS#528375

(585) 738-1779

smguy@grbbank.com

Apply online:

GRBbank.com/Suzanne-Guy

Genesee Regional Bank

Local decisions with quick turnaround!

Making the home you've longed for, possible

With more than two decades of mortgage industry experience, Suzanne is a natural fit for homebuyers at any stage. Whether it's your first home or you're a seasoned homeowner, she is committed to serving as your advocate.

Suzanne has held many diverse roles in her career, from loan processing and closing to her current role as a skilled loan originator. With her first-hand knowledge of the entire process, Suzanne's approach places you in the best possible position for a successful home-buying experience.

Individualized Attention

Suzanne views each buyer's situation as unique. No matter what budget or home value, everyone is given the same respect, guidance, and support. Getting to know each client allows her to offer the best loan options based on individual financials, credit, purchase location and timing. Suzanne's extensive knowledge of specific programs and grants sets you up for future success in your home purchasing decisions.

Realtor Relationships

Suzanne recognizes the importance of working with like-minded people who share foresight in their client's success. That's why she believes it's vital to work closely with the realtor as a team, always acting in the best interest of the homebuyer. Those trusting relationships serve as the foundation for a successful transaction and a truly informed home buyer!

"Thank you for all that you have done for us. You made the process of obtaining a mortgage a simple one. I will never forget the time you took answering my questions and concerns during our first conversation, even after work hours. I am so glad you were on our team!"

— Sasha N.

"When I first meet my clients, I want to learn everything I can about them and their situations, so that I can tailor the process to their needs. For me, it's about creating the opportunity for a buyer to achieve their dreams of purchasing a home they can enjoy for years to come."

— Suzanne Guy

Member FDIC NMLS#417491

SG01/20